

THE 2026 INCOMPAS POLICY SUMMIT

WASHINGTON D.C. FEB. 3-4, 2026

The 2026 INCOMPAS Policy Summit is the preeminent event focusing on the forces shaping our communications and technology landscape.

Expanding to two full days at the Civiletti Center at Venable in Washington, D.C., the Policy Summit will bring together competitive communications and AI infrastructure leaders with the nation's key government decision makers for deep dives into the critical issues:

- February 3rd: The Future of Infrastructure – With a focus on AI infrastructure and energy, sessions and keynotes will spotlight how next-generation networks, data centers and energy innovations will power America's digital future.
- February 4th: Communications Policy – Get essential updates on other key issues, including broadband deployment, permitting reform, the future of voice services and the Universal Service Fund (USF).

Keynotes and panels will include speakers from Congress, the White House, FCC, NTIA, Department of Energy and other federal agencies, as well as seasoned industry executives who will share how actions in Washington shape strategies driving growth, innovation and competition across the communications and technology ecosystem.
